Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

1. O ye young men and maidens! on this day, the King of heaven, the King of glory, rose from the dead. Alleluia.
2. And Mary Magdalen, and Mary (mother of James), and Salome, went that they might anoint the body. Alleluia.
3. Having been told by Magdalen, two of the disciples ran to the door of the sepulchre. Alleluia.

4. But the Apostle John outran Peter, and was the first at the sepulchre. Alleluia.
5. An angel clad in white was sitting there, and said to the women that the Lord was risen. Alleluia.
6. As the disciples were standing together, Christ stood in their midst, and said : Peace be to you all! Alleluia.
7. Didymus, having heard that Jesus had risen, was incredulous. Alleluia.
8. See, Thomas, see my side, see my feet, see my hands ! Be not incredulous. Alleluia.
9. As soon as Thomas saw Jesus' side and feet and hands, he said : Thou art my God. Alleluia.
10. Blessed are they that have not seen, and have firmly believed! They shall have eternal life. Alleluia.
11. Let us sing hymns of praise and joy on this most holy feast! Let us bless the Lord! Alleluia.
12. Let us give to God our most humble, devout and due thanks, for all these his favours. Alleluia.
 Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
