'O Gloriosa Domina' is the second half of the hymn 'Quem terra, pontus, aethera,' which was composed by Venantius Fortunatus (530-609), the Bishop of Poitiers.

Both hymns are popular Marian hymns used in the Liturgy, 'Quem terra, pontus, aethera' being used for the Office of the Matins, and this hymn being used for Lauds in the Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The hymn was a favorite of St. Anthony of Padua.

*Tradition has it that it was sung by St. Anthony's mother when he was an infant.
It was such a favorite of St. Anthony, that it was constantly on his lips during his life and he sang it at his death.*

Almighty God, you have given St. Anthony to your people as an outstanding preacher and a ready helper in time of need. With his assistance may we follow the gospel of Christ and know the help of your grace in every difficulty. Grant this though our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns...

Lectio

*I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching. For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine but, following their own desires and insatiable curiosity, will accumulate teachers and will stop listening to the truth and will be diverted to myths. But you, be self-possessed in all circumstances; put up with hardship; perform the work of an evangelist; fulfill your ministry.—2 Timothy 4:1-5

Gradual - Alleluia

The just man shall spring as the lily: and flourish forever before the Lord.

Alleluja. Amavit eum Dominus, et ornavit eum: stolam gloriae induit eum. Alleluja.

Alleluia. The Lord loved him and adorned him: He clothed him with a robe of glory. Alleluia.

Evangelium (Parish Book of Chant, page 8)

*Jesus said to his disciples: “You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”—Matthew 5:13-16

Offertorium

Veritas Mea, et misericordia Mea cum ipso: et in nomine Meo exaltabitur cornu ejus.

My truth and My mercy shall be with him: and in My name shall his horn be exalted.

Oratio super oblata

Sacrificium tibi placeat, Deus, in festivitate N. libenter exhibitum, quo momento, nos etiam totos reddimus collaudantes. Per Christum...

Lord, accept our sacrifice on this feast of St. N., and following his example, may we give you our praise and offer you all we have. Grant this in the name of Jesus the Lord.
