Choral Prelude:

“Thou Knowest, Lord” ... Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

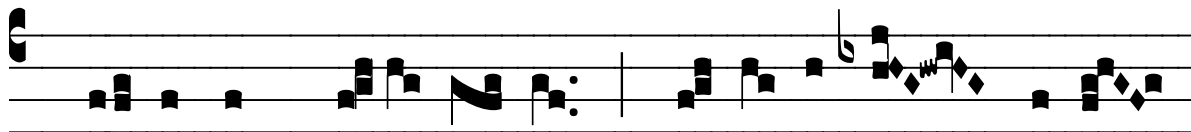

(Sung by the Adult Choir)

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts: shut not thy merciful ears unto our prayer; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty. O holy and most merciful Savior, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee.
Amen.

“God, So Loved the World” ... Sir John Goss (1800-1880)

(Sung by the Children & Adults)

Introit: Requiem Aeternum, Mode VI

Re- quiem aeter - nam do- na e- is Domine: et lux perpe- tu- a lu-ce- at e - is.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Psalm 65(64) A song of springtime, Te decet hymnus

To you our praise is due in Zion, O God.
To you we pay our vows,
you who hear our prayer.

To you all flesh will come
with its burden of sin.
Too heavy for us, our offenses,
But you wipe them away.

Blessed is he whom you choose and call
to dwell in your courts.
We are filled with the blessings of your house,
of your holy temple.

The First Reading

The Homily

The Prayers of the Faithful Te rogamos audi nos

Preparation of the Table

Offertorium: Domine Jesu Christe ... Chant, Mode 2

O Lord, Jesus Christ, King of Glory, deliver the souls of all the departed faithful from the sufferings of hell and from the deep pit; deliver them from the mouth of the lion, may they not be swallowed up by hell, may they not fall into darkness; but may St. Michael, the standard-bearer, present them in holy light as you promised long ago to Abraham and his descendents.

Hymn: Be Thou My Vision (Slane)

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart;
All else be naught to me, save that Thou art.
Thou my best Thought, by day and by night,
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my true Word;
I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, thine own may I be;
Thou in me dwelling, and I one with Thee.

Be Thou my battle Shield, Sword for the fight;
Be Thou my Dignity, Thou my Delight;
Thou my soul's Shelter, Thou my high Tower;
Raise Thou me heavenward, O Power of my power.

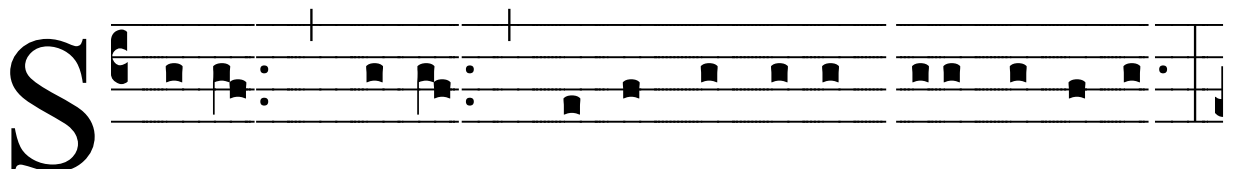

Riches I need not, nor man's empty praise,
Thou mine Inheritance, now and always:
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart,
High King of Heaven, my Treasure Thou art.

High King of Heaven, my victory won,
May I reach Heaven's joys, bright Heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
Still be my Vision, O Ruler of all.

Text attributed to Dallan Forgaill, 8th Century (Rob tu mo bhoile, a Comdi cride); translated from ancient Irish to English in 1905. Music: Slane, of Irish folk origin. Slane Hill is about ten miles from Tara in County Meath. It was on Slane Hill around 433 AD that St. Patrick defied a royal edict by lighting candles on Easter Eve. High King Logaire of Tara had decreed that no one could light a fire before Logaire began the pagan spring festival by lighting a fire on Tara Hill. Logaire was so impressed by Patrick's devotion that, despite his defiance (or perhaps because of it), he let him continue his missionary work. The rest is history.

The family wishes to thank Elizabeth Carson, Administrator for Willow Creek Alzheimer & Dementia Care, and her staff for their care, compassion and ability to understand Mom's reality these last 4 years. We also thank Katie Knox, owner and Gwen, administrator of Rosegate Assisted Living and their staff for their kindness, compassion and care for Martha during mom's last 15 months. Finally, we sincerely thank Vitas Innovative Hospice Care for their oversight, care and compassion for mom and our family during these last four months, a period that was difficult for mom, but their expert care, kindness and ability for humor went along way to make Mom's last few months as peaceful as possible. We also wish to thank the people of St. Edward and All Saints for their prayerful encouragement and support. Thanks too, to the couples of Retrouvaille around the world, the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, and Bishop Salvatore Cordileone and the priests of the Diocese of Oakland for their Prayers and best wishes.
