

1. Let joys be joined to sol - emn feasts.
2. Re - call that fi - nal eve - ning meal,
3. The feast of Pas - chal lamb now o'er,
4. Then to the weak He por - tioned flesh
5. May Bread of An - gels be man's bread;
6. We pray you, God - head three and one,

Let prais - es from the depths re - sound.
When Christ did of - fer lamb and bread.
The Bo - dy of the Lord now shared,
and to the mourn - ful gave His blood.
May heav'n - ly bread old rites out - grow.
O come, as we re - call your grace.

Let old things pass; make all things new.
Ac - cor - ding to the an - cient law
Thus, ev' - ry - thing, to all and each
He said, "Ac - cept this cup I give,
O won - drous thing! God is con - sumed
Lead on your way, by which we come

Let heart and voice and works a - bound.
From pa - tri - archs in - her - i - ted:
From His own hands was then de - clared.
that from it all of you may drink."
By ser - vile, low - ly, and the poor.
In - to that light where - in you dwell.
