

Sequentia/Prosa in S. Michaelis Archangeli. - XXIX Septembris
LAUS ERUMPAT EX AFFECTU (Let our love break forth in praises) (VII)

LAUS e-rumpat ex affectu! Psallat chorus in conspectu

Superno-rum cí-vi-um! 1b. Laus jocunda, laus de-co-ra,

Quando laudí con cano-ra Pu-rí-tas est cordí-um.

2a. Mícha-e-lem cunctí laudent Nec ab hu-jus se defraudent

Dí-e-í le-tí-tí-a. 2b. Fe-líx dí-es qua sancto-rum

Re-cense-tur ange-lorum Sol-lemnís victo-rí-a!

3a. Dra-co ve-tus extur-ba-tur Et dra-co-nís effuga-tur

In-ímí-ca le-gí-o; Exturba-tus est turba-tor

Et pro-je-ctus accu-sa-tor A ce-lí fastí-gí-o.

3b. Sub tu-te-la Mícha-e-lís Pax in terra, pax in celís,

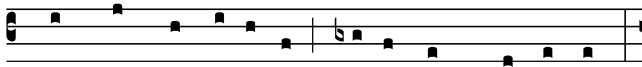

Laus et jú-bí-la-tí-o; Cum fit po-tens híc vírtu-te,

Pro commu-ní stans sa-lu-te, Trí-umphat in pre-lí-o.

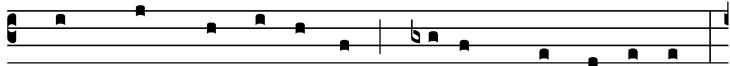

4a. Suggestor sce-le-ris, Pulsus a supe-ris,

Per hu-jus a-e-ris Oberrat spa-ti-a.

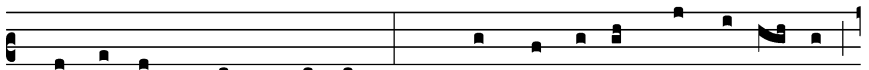

4b. Do-lis invi-gi-lat, Vi-rus insi-bi-lat,

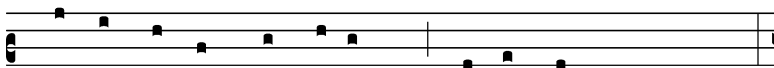

Sed hunc adnichí-lat Presens custo-dí-a.

5a. Tres dístíncte hie-rarchí-e Ju-gi vacant the-or-í-e

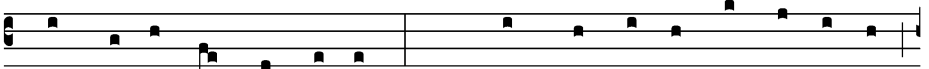

Ju-gique psaltē-rí-o, 5b. Nec obsistit the-o-rí-a

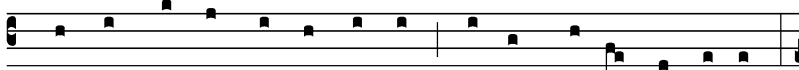

Sí-ve ju-gis harmoní-a Ju-gi mí-nistē-rí-o.

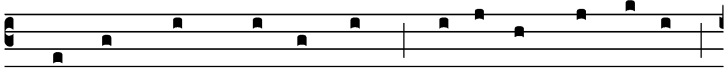

6a. O quam mí-re ca-rí-ta-tís Est superne cí-vi-ta-tís

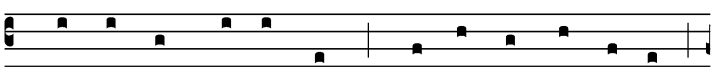

Ter terna dí-stínctí-o!, 6b. Que nos amat et tu-e-tur,

Ut ex nobis restaure-tur E-jus dí-mí-nu-tí-o!

7a. Sí-cut sunt homí-num Dí-verse: gra-tí-e,

Sic e-runt ordí-num Dístíncte glo-rí-e:

Justis in premi-o ; 7b. Solis est a-li-a
Quam lu-ne digni-tas, Stella-rum va-ri-a
Re-lu-cet cla-ri-tas : Sic re-surrecti-o.

8a. Ve-tus homo no-vi-ta-ti, Se terrestris pu-ri-ta-ti
Conformet ce-lesti-um; 8b. Co-equa-lis hic fu-tu-rus,
Li-cet nondum plene pu-rus, Spe pre-sumat premi-um.

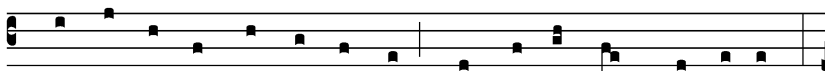

9a. Ut ab ipsi-s adju-ve-mur, Hos de-vo-te ve-ne-remur
Instantes obsequi-o ; 9b. De-o nos concí-li-at
Ange-lisque so-ci-at Sínce-ra de-vo-ti-o.

10a. De secretis re-ti-centes Inte-rim ce-les-ti-bus,
E-ri-gamus pu-ras mentes In ce-lum cum ma-ni-bus !

10b. Ut superna nos digne-tur Cohe-re-des cu-ri-a,

Et dí-vi-na collaude-tur Ab utrisque gra-ti-a !

11. Ca-pí-tí sít glo-rí-a Membrisque concordí-a !

This was the Sequence used in Paris, France. From the late 12th c.

Translation by Digby S. Wrangham, 1881

Transcribed from: MS. Paris, BN. lat. 14819, fols. 130r-132v

Typeset by Christopher McAvoy, Emmitsburg, MD, 301-447-2669

Sequence/Prose for St. Michael, Archangel. - 29 September
LET OUR LOVE BREAK FORTH IN PRAISES (Laus erumpat ex affectu) (VII)

LET our love break forth in praises, And the hymn our choir upraises

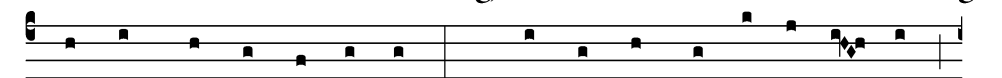

In the ho-ly angels' sight! 1b. Praise is pleasant, praise be-fitting,

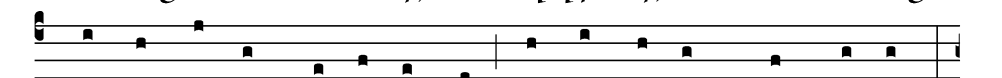

When our hearts, no sin committing, With our lips in praise u-nite.

2a. Michael let all men be lauding, None of us ourselves de-frauding

Of the gladness of to-day; 2b. Hap-py day, for ev-er tell-ing

Of the triumph all-ex-cell-ing Of the Angels' bright ar-ray!

3a. Off is the old dragon dri-ven, And his le-gion, foes of hea-ven,

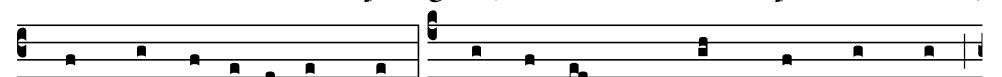

Put to ig-no-mi-nious flight: In confu-sion the confus-er

Is expelled, and man's ac-cuser Hurlled from heaven's utmost height.

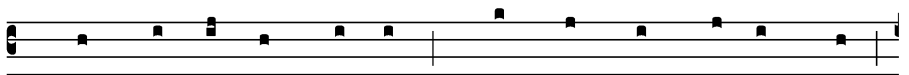

3b. Whene'er Michael's help is given, Peace on earth and peace in heaven,

Praise and ju-bi-lation, reign; 'Tis his valour, might command-ing,

For the common weal upstanding, Triumphs on the bat-tle-plain.

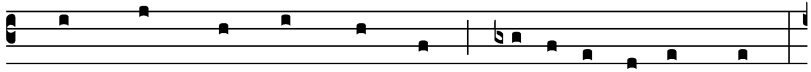

4a. Prompting to sín's dísgrace, Thrust out from heaven's race,

Through the air's boundless space Sa-tan walks to and fro:

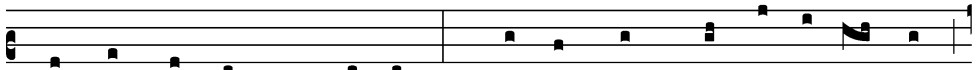

4b. Watchíng with ma-ny a wíle, Breathes he ín poi-son víle,

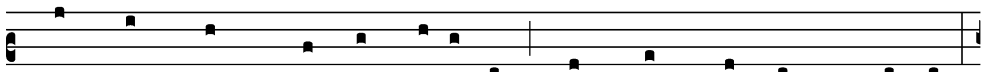

But guards at hand his guíle Utter-ly o-ver-throw.

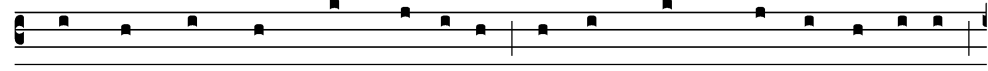

5a. Hí-er-ar-chíes three ín hea-ven Are to ceaseless worship gí-ven,

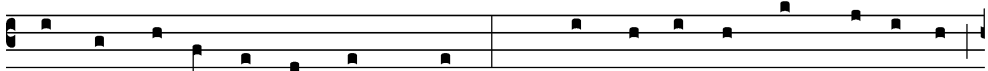

And to ceaseless hār-mo-ny: 5b. Néither doth theír a-do-ra-tíon,

Nor theír hymns without cessatíon, Stay theír ceaseless mī-nístry.

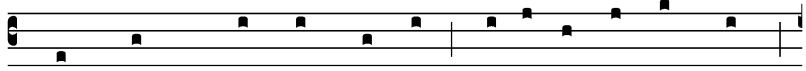

6a. O what wondrous love's vo-lítion Is this thrice threefold dí-víision

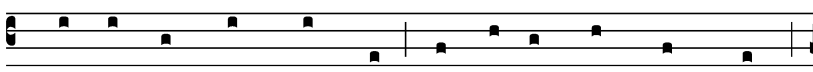

Of the hea-ven-ly kíngdom's host! 6b. Man so lov-íng and protectíng,

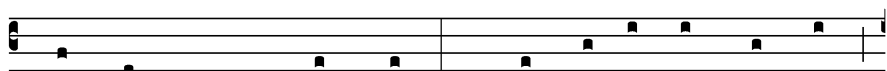

As from men to be se-lect-íng What ít of ít's own hath lost!

7a. As 'mongst mankínd we see Dí-ver-sí-ties of grace,

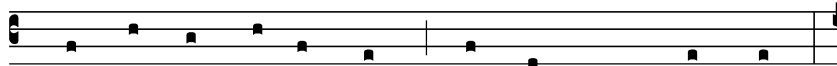

So or-ders will there be Of varied rank and place,

The righteous' glórious meed: 7b. One glo-ry hath the sun,

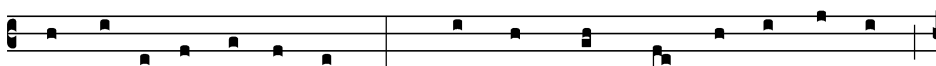

A-nother pale moonlight; The stars shine forth, each one

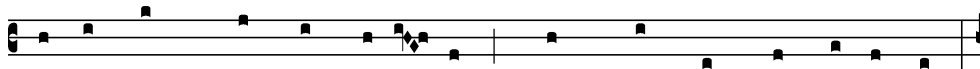

With its own glo-ry bright; So shall the ri-sen dead!

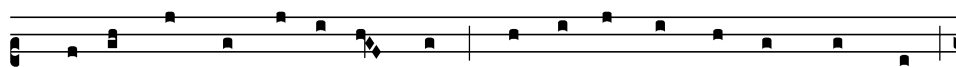

8a. Let the old man, and the earth-y, Be renewed in fashion worth-y

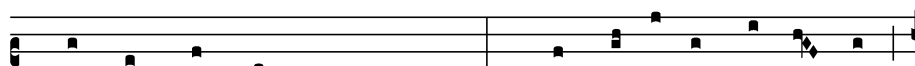

Of an-ge-lic in-nocence: 8b. He may hope then in the se-quel

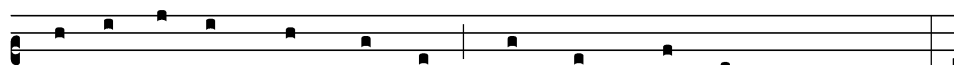

To be crowned as their co-e-qual, Though not pure from all offence.

9a. Ne-ver ceas-ing to o-bey them, Let us pí-ous honour pay them,

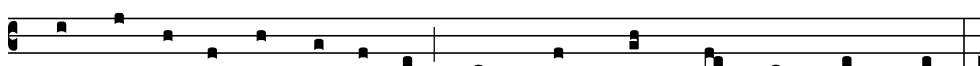

That we may their help obtain; 9b. All de-votion so sín-cere

To the an-gels brings us near, And God's love for us will gain.

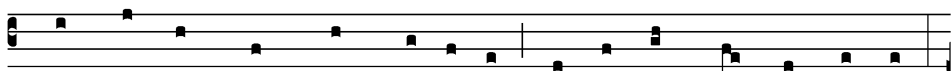

10. Therefore, breaking sílence ne-ver On heaven's secret things meanwhile,

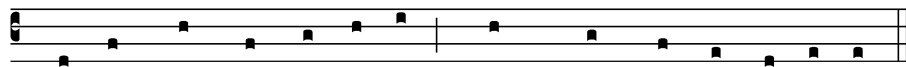

Thíth-er let us líft up ev-er Hearts with hands all pure from guíle;

10b. That co-heírs the courts of heaven Thus may deem us fit to be,

And by both due praise be gi-ven To Di-vine grace e-qual-ly!

11. To the Head all glo-ry be, 'Mongst the members u-ni-ty!

This was the Sequence used in Paris, France. From the late 12th c.

Translation by Digby S. Wrangham, 1881

Transcribed from: MS. Paris, BN. lat. 14819, fols. 130r-132v

Typeset by Christopher McAvoy, Emmitsburg, MD, 301-447-2669