

The Reproaches for Great Friday of the Crucifixion

slowly, gravely, with great dignity, solemn Polish

Peo- ple, my peo - ple, what have I done un- to thee?

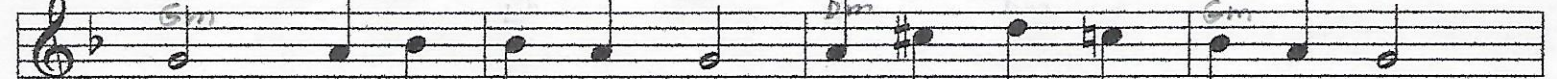

How have I griev- ed thee? Do thou an- swer me.

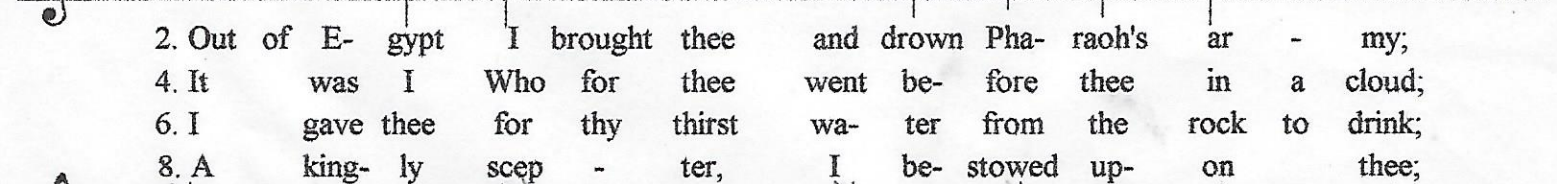

1. It was I Who for thee didst smite E- gypt's first - born;

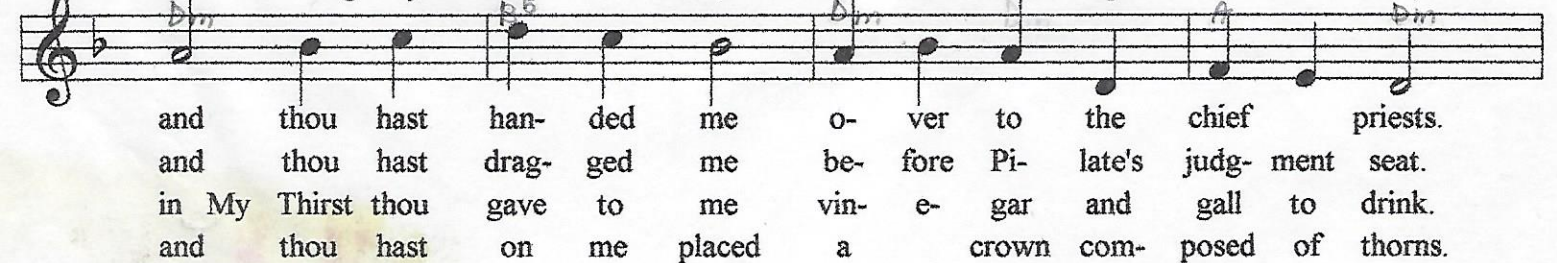

3. It was I Who for thee o- pened up the Red Sea;

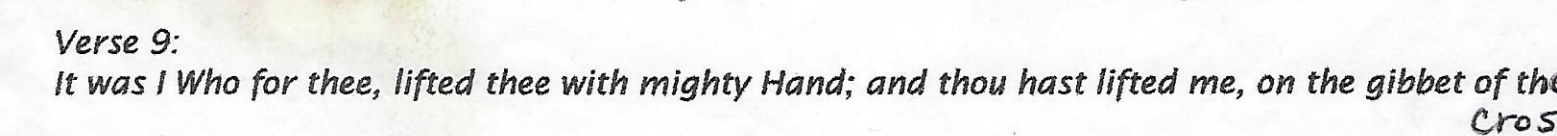

5. With man- na I fed thee in the wil- der- ness;

7. It was I Who for thee didst the kings of Can- nan strike;

and thou didst scourge me and de- livered me up to death.
 and thou hast o- pened up my side with a lance.
 and thou hast smit- ten me with blows and scour - ges.
 and thou hast struck me on the Head with a reed.

2. Out of E- gypt I brought thee and drown Pha- raoh's ar - my;

4. It was I Who for thee went be- fore thee in a cloud;

6. I gave thee for thy thirst wa- ter from the rock to drink;

8. A king- ly scep - ter, I be- stowed up- on thee;

and thou hast han- ded me o- ver to the chief priests.
 and thou hast drag- ged me be- fore Pi- late's judg- ment seat.
 in My Thirst thou gave to me vin- e- gar and gall to drink.
 and thou hast on me placed a crown com- posed of thorns.

Verse 9:

It was I Who for thee, lifted thee with mighty Hand; and thou hast lifted me, on the gibbet of the Cross.
