

Blessed Mary Ever-Virgin

ST. THOMAS, 8.7.8.7.8.7.

J.F. Wade 1751

(c) 2021 Anna Bendiksen (b. 1969)

$\text{♩} = 100$

S
A

1. Bles - sed Ma - ry e - ver - Vir - gin, Rose of Is - rael
2. Sin - less one from Thy con - cep - tion, Born to Jo - a -
3. Vir - gin when be - trothed to Jo - seph, Vir - gin still in
4. When Thine earth - ly life was en - ded, Soul and bo - dy
5. Now Thou reign - est, Queen of Hea - ven, Light of Bro - ther
6. Bles - sed Ma - ry e - ver - Vir - gin, The - o - to - kos, in full bloom; Mo - ther to a world of sin - ners, chim and Anne, Ne - ver has a sweet - er mai - den cat - tle stall; Vir - gin as Our Lord grew dai - ly, pure as light Were as - sumed by God to Hea - ven;

T
B

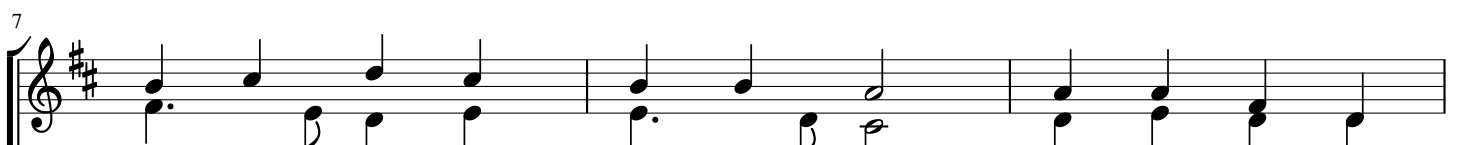

4

Sun Thy gown; Sis - ter Moon Thy path il - lu - mines grant this grace: May our souls be wombs for Je - sus;

7

The - o - to - kos, in Thy womb Christ of all the Lived on earth since time be - gan; Who else could have Vir - gin when He raised His call; Vir - gin wit - ness
O what splen - dor! O what might! How the an - gels
And twelve stars a - dorn Thy crown; Whirl - ing pla - nets Make our lives His dwel - ling - place Till like stars we star - ry hea - vens Came to make His earth - ly home.

 borne our Je - sus, Ve - ry God and ve - ry Man?
 to His Pas - sion, Vir - gin Mo - ther of us all:
 bade Thee wel - come, How the saints sang their de - light!
 pause in greet - ing, Count - less ga - lax - ies bow down.
 rise to meet Him And be - hold Him face to face. A - men.