

O Gracious Dwelling

Text by Adam Wood

William Copper

O gra - cious dwel - ling of our King, rise
You are the tem - ple, you the star, the
Your off - spring shall our Shep - herd be, and 4

up, and let the Ma - gi in, Who ta - ber - na - cle full of grace, A you our Moth - er, e - ver - more. You

9
come to ho - nor, laud and sing the Child who host for pil - grims near and far, on earth the
are our grace our life; and He our sure sal -

13
saves us from our sin.
pure - est Ho - ly place.
va - tion, source, and store.

17

They of - fer gold and rich per - fume, and
 From you, O Queen, O seat, O bride, and the
 We of - fer song, dear Ma - ry mild, and all the gifts they have to bring. To great - est King is born to earth. To all we have we owe to you. Our 25

21

praise the One who from your womb came Him and you the wise shall ride, to gifts are naught with - out your Child, your 29

forth to be our Lord and King
 gift and praise the Ho - ly birth.
 love in - fu - ses all we do.