Collection

We thank you for joining us in our program tonight, and we invite you to also join in supporting us financially. Just like your home parish needs your financial support in order to continue its important work, so too do we at Holy Trinity Seminary. Your gift of stewardship, whatever its amount, is another expression of your love for the priesthood and your desire to help us give the Church the best priests possible to someday serve you. We thank you in advance for your many expressions of support.

Prayer By All: O God, who chose the Apostles to make disciples of all nations and who by Baptism and Confirmation has called us to build up your holy Church, we ask you to give us priests who will love you with their whole heart and will gladly spend their entire lives making you known and loved by all. Through our Advent prayers and waiting, stir up in our hearts a desire to welcome you each day and to serve you in our brothers and sisters. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson Is 2: 1-5

Motet Rorate Caeli

Gregory Hamilton

Drop down, ye heavens, from above,
and let the skies pour down righteousness:
let the earth open,
and let it bring forth a Saviour.

With the Mystery and power of God
He reaches down to earth
Descending to earth is God,
The Lord Himself, comes.

Second Lesson Is. 11: 1-10

Response

In Splendoribus

Gregorian Chant

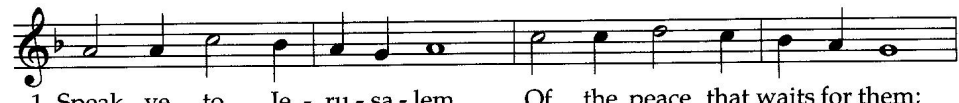

In holy splendor, from the womb before the daystar, I have begotten thee. 1. The Lord said to my Lord: sit at my right hand. 2. Until I make thy enemies thy footstool. 3. The Lord will send the scepter of power out of Zion, rule thou in the midst of thine enemies. 4. With Thee is the principality in the day of thy strength, in the brightness of the saints, from the womb before the daystar, I have begotten Thee

Third Lesson Is 40: 1-5, 9-11
