Existing Drop cap found on the internet

a couple of hours work in AI to create the digital illustrations which will be superimposed on the dropcap.

My adaptation using elements found in greek icons to highlight the aspect of angels singing the Sanctus. The angels will appear to be behind the drop cap when complete.

A typical Seraphim found in icon writing.

placement of the raster image demonstrating where the final AI image will be placed.