Sunday Week I

Morning Prayer

Hymn Aeterne rerum conditor. (L.M)

Eternal maker of the world,	O Jesus, save us, for we fall;
The sov'reign Lord of night of night and day:	Look down and set us right, we pray;
You give the seasons of the year	For your glance our failings fail,
To take time's heaviness away.	And sorrow Washes sins away.

In deepest night you never sleep,	O Light, upon our senses shine,
A Lamp for trav'lers on the way;	Dispel the sleepiness within;
A Light dividing night from night,	Let out first words be words of you;
The rooster crows announcing day.	With faithful praise our day begin.

See, at the sound, the daystar wakes	To you, O Christ, most kindly King,
And drives the darkness from the sky;	And to the Father, glory be;
All those who strayed on deadly roads	Praise to the Spirit Paraclete,
Now take the path to life on high.	In ev'ry age, eternally. Amen.

The ocean hears; the waves die down;
The sailor overcomes his fears
Saint Peter hears; The Church's Rock
Removes denial's stain with tears.

Lord, you are our life and our salvation.

Creator of the stars, we thank you for your gift, the first rays of the dawn,

Through his holy prophets he promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, † from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant .
