

The Souls of the Just (Wis. 3,1–5) for two voices & accompaniment

Christoph Dalitz (2024)

The souls of the just are in the hand of God,
And the tor-ment of death

In the sight of the un-wise they seemed to shall not touch them.

die, but they are in peace, in peace, but they are in peace, in peace, but they are in but they are in peace, they are in peace, but they peace, they are in peace, but are in peace, in peace. _____

they are in pace, in peace. _____

Fine

And though in the sight of men they suf-fered tor-ments, their hope is

Af-flic-ted in few things, in full of im-mor-ta-li-ty ma-ny they shall be well re-war-ded: be-cause God has tried them, and found them wor-thy of him-self.

The musical score is written for two parts in G major (one sharp). The first system has two measures with chords G and D. The second system has two measures with chords D7 and G. The third system has two measures with chords E7 and Am. The fourth system has four measures with chords D, B7, Em, and D7. The lyrics are: "And though in the sight of men they suf-fered tor-ments, their hope is Af-flic-ted in few things, in full of im-mor-ta-li-ty ma-ny they shall be well re-war-ded: be-cause God has tried them, and found them wor-thy of him-self."
