1. When the stars shone in the clear night, in the splendor, Mary gave birth to her Lord. She is the Rose of Florence, the best flower in the garden, a virgin pure, from the line of David. 2. When the angel gave the greeting to her, she meditated on the Word coming as the Light of the World at midnight. This fruit is begotten of the Creator, the supreme Lord, Jesus is the Word Incarnate for the redemption of humankind. 3. She was always faithful to his son in tears and laughter... consecrate your life to Him today, celebrate their joy today celebrate your pain, tender and devoted mother of blessed Savior.
