Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: 2 Corinthians 9:6-10

Thin sowing means thin reaping; the more you sow, the more you reap. Each one should give what he has decided in his own mind, not grudgingly or because he is made to, for God loves a cheerful giver. And there is no limit to the blessings which God can send you – he will make sure that you will always have all you need for yourselves in every possible circumstance, and still have something to spare for all sorts of good works. As scripture says: He was free in almsgiving, and gave to the poor: his good deeds will never be forgotten. The one who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will provide you with all the seed you want and make the harvest of your good deeds a larger one.

Responsorial Psalm:

Hap-py the mer- ci__ ful, who give to those in__ need.

|---|---|
| 1. Happy the man who fears the Lord.who takes delight in his commands.His sons will be powerful on earth;the children of the upright are blessed.     | 3. He has no fear of evil news;with a firm heart he trusts the Lord.With a steadfast heart he will not fear;he will see the downfall of his foes. |
| 2. The good man takes pity and lends,he conducts his affairs with honour.With a steadfast heart he will not fear;he will see the downfall of his foes | 4. Open-handed, he gives to the poor;his justice stands firm forever.His head will be raised in glory   |

Alleluia:

Ant.
6.
A L-le-lú-ia, * alle-lú-ia, alle-lú-ia.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord:
whoever follows me will have the light of life.

Gospel: John 12: 24-26

Jesus said to his disciples: “I tell you most solemnly, unless a grain of wheat falls on the ground and dies, it remains only a single grain; but if it dies, it yields a rich harvest. Anyone who loves his life loses it’ anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it for the eternal life. If a man serves me, he must follow me, wherever I am, my servant will be there too. If anyone serves me, my Father will honour him.”
