Respónsum. [or † Et benedíxit.]

It was revealed to Simeon by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord; and when they brought the child into the temple, he received him into his arms, [†] and blessed God, saying: Now you dismiss your servant, O Lord, in peace.

v. When his parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the Law, he received him into his arms.

Christ was offered once to take away the sins of many; the second time with no part in sin he will appear unto the salvation of those who await him. v. I have believed, therefore have I spoken; but I have been humbled exceedingly. I said in my excess: Every man is a liar. v. What shall I render to the Lord, for all the things he has rendered unto me? I will take the chalice of salvation; and I will call upon the name of the Lord.

Glorious things are said of you, O Mary, for he who is mighty has done great things for you.

1 My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

2 Because he has regarded the humility of his handmaid: for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

3 Because he that is mighty has done great things to me: and holy is his name.

4 And his mercy is from generation unto generations to them that fear him.
