

Job Opportunity: Director of Sacred Music
Help Us Rebuild Sacred Beauty at the Heart of Our Parish Worship
St. Theresa the Little Flower Catholic Church – Summerville, SC
Full-Time | Salary Range: $60,000–$75,000

We are seeking a faith-filled, highly skilled Director of Sacred Music to lead and rebuild a reverent and vibrant music program rooted in the Church's sacred tradition. This full-time leadership position calls for a confident, experienced organist and choral director who will work closely with our pastor to elevate the liturgical life of our parish in accordance with the principles of Musicam Sacram.

Your Mission

- Rebuild and lead the parish music program with excellence and fidelity to the Church's liturgy
 - Establish and grow a Children's Choir, nurturing a love of sacred music in the next generation
 - Integrate Gregorian chant, polyphony, motets, and traditional hymnody into all liturgies
 - Direct and accompany:
 - Saturday Vigil Mass – 5:00 PM
 - Sunday Masses – 8:00 AM & 10:45 AM
 - Holy Days, funerals, weddings, and special liturgical events
 - Collaborate with the Pastor to select music in keeping with the liturgical calendar and sacred tradition
 - Recruit, train, and schedule cantors, musicians, and instrumentalists
 - Lead weekly rehearsals, prepare worship aids, and steward parish music resources

Qualifications

- A practicing Catholic with a deep spiritual life and love for the Church's liturgy
 - Firm understanding of the principles outlined in Musicam Sacram
 - Demonstrated excellence in organ performance and choral direction
 - Strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills
 - Experience building and directing music programs in a parish setting preferred

Our Instrument

St. Theresa's features a Rodgers 960 Digital Organ, a three-manual model with 60 drawknobs in a traditional case, installed with 16 audio channels. This well-maintained instrument plays a central role in the musical life of the parish.
