

O Gracious Dwelling

Adam Wood

GOLDEN WOOD (LMD)

William Copper

O gra - cious dwel - ling of our King, rise up and
You are the tem - ple, you the star, the ta - ber -
Your off - spring shall our Shep - herd be, and you our

3

let the Ma - gi in, Who come to ho - nor, laud and na - cle full of grace, A host for pil - grims near and Moth - er, e - ver - more. You are our grace, our life; and 9

sing the Child who saves us from our sin.
far, on earth the pure - est Ho - ly place.
He our sure sal - va - tion, source, and store.

9

They of-fer gold and rare per-fume, and all the rich-es that they
 From you O Queen, O seat, O bride, the great-est King is born to Then let all come and bend the knee, and still the voice, and hear the 12

bring. To praise the One who from your womb came earth. To Him and you the wise shall ride, to call. Let heart be bid to pray and see: the 15

forth to be our Lord and King.
 gift and sing the Ho-ly birth.
 Child re-vealed as God to all.