

The Dazzling Day Is Now Far Spent

A Hymn on the Agony in the Garden

Text (c) 2023 Anna Bendiksen (b.1969)
Sources: Gospel of Matthew 26:40,
Gospel of Luke 24:29

CARDINAL SARAH
8.8.8.6.

Tune and harm. (c) 2023 Anna Bendiksen (b.1969)

♩ = 80

S
A

1.The daz - zling day is now far spent; The
2.The gar - den sinks in sha - dow deep; In 3.What faith - less - ness Your love has known; And 4.Our hearts have strayed to earth - ly gain, To 5.We can - not go where You are bound, And
6.The daz - zling day is now far spent, The

T
B

3

stars have made their fair as - cent; O chil - dren of the bonds of stu - por sin - ners sleep; O dear - est Je - sus, now You face the Cross a - lone; May we who call our - lures with - out and lies with - in; How You re - veal Your so we pray we may be found A - wake on this, God's stars have made their fair as - cent; O who a - mong us

Lord,	re - pent	And	watch	with Him	to - night!
help	me keep	The	watch	with You	to - night.
selves	Your own	Keep	watch	with You	to - night.
an	- guish when	We	watch	with You	to - night!
ho	- ly ground	At	watch	with You	to - night.
shall	re - pent	And	watch	with You	to - night?

