

Sarum Gradual in English,

after the Book of Common Prayer
and the King James Bible.

Sundays and Feasts of the Temporale only (Sequences omitted).

Draft edition only. Not for circulation.

July 2012. William Renwick.

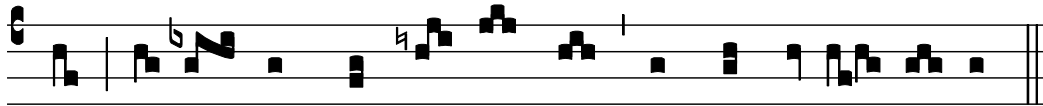

Note. While the texts follow the style of the BCP and KJV, they adhere to the content of the Sarum originals. The settings of Gloria Patri. at the Officium will be found at the end. The traditional Sarum practice on Sundays and Feasts is to repeat the Officium after the Psalm Verse, and again after the Gloria Patri.

First Sunday in Advent.

Officium. Ad te levavi. VIII.

The musical notation consists of three systems, each with a square neume on a four-line staff. The first system begins with a large, ornate initial 'A' in a square frame. The lyrics are: 'N-to thee, O Lord, * have I lift-ed up my soul :'. The second system has the lyrics: 'O my God, in thee do I put my trust, let me not be'. The third system has the lyrics: 'a-sham-ed : neither let mine e-nemies laugh at'.

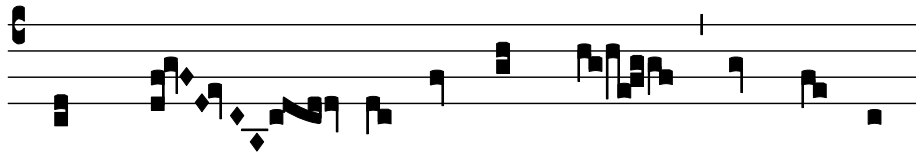

me : for all they that wait for thee shall not be a-sham-ed.

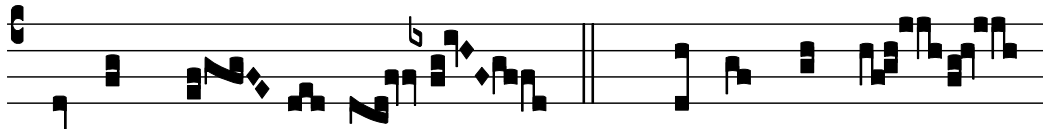

Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord : and teach me thy paths.

Universi qui te expectant.

us* thy salva- tion.

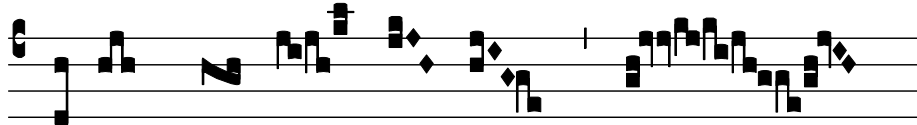

Ad te Domine levavi.

Offert.
II.

N-to thee, * O Lord, have I lift- ed up my soul : O my God, in thee do I put my trust, let me not be a-sham-ed, neither let mine e- nemies laugh at me :
for all they that wait on thee shall not be con- found-ed.

The two following verses are sung in alternation on weekdays.

I-rect me in thy truth, and learn me : for thou art God my sa- viour :

and on thee have I wait-ed all the day long.

∞. Turn thee unto me, and have mer-cy upon me, O

Lord : keep thou my soul, and de-liv- er me : let me not be confounded, for I have cal-led upon thee.
