

Psalm 104; 25-35, 37

appropriate on Pentecost Sunday

BCP, 1979

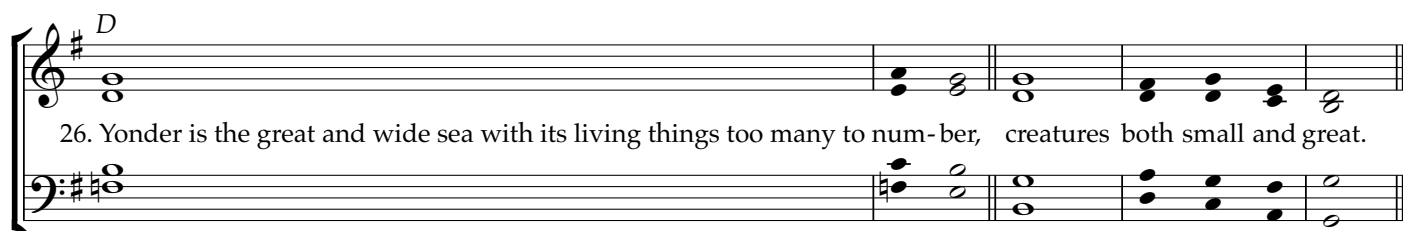

plainsong mode 8

A

25. O Lord, how manifold are your works! in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

D

26. Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to num-ber, creatures both small and great.

B

27. There move the ships, and there is that Le - vi - athan, which you have made for the sport of it.

C

28. All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

A

29. You give it to them; they gath-er it; you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

D

30. You hide your face, and they are ter-ri-fied; you take away their breath, and they die and re-turn to their dust.

B

31. You send forth your Spirit, and they are cre - a - ted; and so you renew the face of the earth.

C

32. May the glory of the Lord endure for ev - er; may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

D

33. He looks at the earth and it trem - bles; he touches the moun - tains and they smoke.

A

34. I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being.

D

35. May these words of mine please him; I will re - joice in the Lord.

A

37. Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hal - le - lu - jah!
