THE UNIVERSAL PRAYER

In the Universal Prayer or Prayer of the Faithful, the people respond in some sense to the Word of God which they have received in faith and, exercising the office of their baptismal Priesthood, offer prayers to God for the salvation of all. It is desirable that there usually be such a form of prayer in Masses celebrated with the people, so that petitions may be offered for holy Church, for those who govern with authority over us, for those weighed down by various needs, for all humanity, and for the salvation of the whole world.

The series of intentions is usually to be:

- a) for the needs of the Church;
- b) for public authorities and the salvation of the whole world;
- c) for those burdened by any kind of difficulty;
- d) for the local community.

Nevertheless, in any particular celebration, such as a Confirmation, a Marriage, or at a Funeral, the series of intentions may be concerned more closely with the particular occasion.

It is for the Priest Celebrant to regulate this prayer from the chair. He himself begins it with a brief introduction, by which he calls upon the faithful to pray, and likewise he concludes it with an oration. The intentions announced should be sober, be composed with a wise liberty and in few words, and they should be expressive of the prayer of the entire community.

They are announced from the ambo or from another suitable place, by the Deacon or by a cantor, a reader, or one of the lay faithful.

The people, for their part, stand and give expression to their prayer either by an invocation said in common after each intention or by praying in silence.

From The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, nos. 69-71

ADD OTHER GIRM QUOTES ABOUT THE UNIVERSAL PRAYER, LIKE THAT ONE ABOUT THE DEACON IN THE 300s AND THOSE INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO PROCLAIM THEM.

Maybe add that little note I saw somewhere about using the solemn tone all through the Mass, or the simple tone all through the Mass. I think I saw it in the ordinary of the Mass section in Bishop Morlino's missal, or possibly in the appendix.

PREFACE

The purpose of this book is two-fold. Firstly, it can be used as a book on the ambo or pulpit to sing the intentions themselves, but also another copy can be used as a book for the celebrant, possibly held by a server, for the priest to chant the accompanying prayers before and after the intentions, and to follow along while the intentions are being sung. Included in this book are:

- 1) The different formularies found in Appendix V on pp. 1461 of the Roman Missal, all set to the music (Tone C from the Missal).
- 2) The various tones for singing both the intercessions, and for the concluding oration by the celebrant prepared for singing, in both the simple and solemn tones, should you choose to use your own text for the universal prayer.
- 3) Both creeds acceptable for usage in Mass, so that it is not necessary to switch books, should the celebrant want the text in front of him for the creed.
- 4) Simple instructions on applying your own text to the melody for the intercessions, so that you can easily sing other petitions as well.

If you want to get in touch with me, email me by visiting WWW.BLOG.YANKEHOME.COM.

I want to thank everyone from the MusicaSacra Forum who gave tips and suggestions, and helped edit and proofread my engraving, particularly Richard Chonak.

I also want to thank everyone at the CMAA for helping me to discover even at a young age the great treasury of sacred music our Church has to offer, and also my bishop, The Most Rev. Bishop Robert Morlino, who has shown me so well by example the great importance of reverence in the Mass, and the importance of the sung liturgy as the highest form of worship.

I hope this book assists you bring the sung sacred liturgy to realization in your parish community. God Bless you.

APPENDIX

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,

who was conceived by
the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.
