

Canticle of the Creatures

Gregorian chant

Based on chant 'Beati mundo corde'

St. Francis of Assisi (1181-1226)

arr. Patrick O'Beirne

9

All___ praise be yours, my Lord through Bro-thers wind___ and___ air,___ cloud-y and ser-ene, and eve-ry kind of weather by which you___ cher - ish all you made.___

10

11

All___ praise be yours, my Lord through Sis - ter___ wa - ter,___ which is___ ve - ry use-ful and___ hum-ble___ and pre - cious and chaste.___

12

13

All___ praise be yours, my Lord through Bro-ther Fire___ through whom you light the night how beau-ti - ful and cheerful, full of pow - er and strength.

14

15

All___ praise be yours, my Lord through our___ Sis - ter___ Moth-er Earth who sus-tains us and gov-erns us and pro-du-ces var-ied fruits with coloured flowers and herbs.___

16

17

All— praise be yours, my Lord through those who grant par - don for love of you;

18

through those who— en - dure sick - ness and trial.

21

Ha - py are those who en-dure in peace, by you, most High, they— will— be crowned.

22

All praise— be Yours, my Lord,— through Sis - ter Death,— from whose embrace no mor - tal can es-cape. Woe— to those who die— in mor - tal sin!

23

24

Hap - py those who do your will! The sec - ond death can do them no harm.

25

Praise and bless my Lord, and give him thanks, and serve him with great hu - mil - i - ty.—