

All Ye Who Would the Christ *Descry (*Behold)

Roman Breviary for the Feast of the Transfiguration

Quicumque Christum Quaeritis

Jacob Flaherty

1. All ye who would the Christ de - scribe, Lift up your eyes to
2. A won - drous sign we there be - hold, That knows not death nor
3. Here is the King the Gen - tiles fear, The Jews' most might - ty
4. 'Tis He the Proph - ets' words fore - told, And by their signs shown
5. Je - sus, to Thee our praise we pay, To lit - tle ones re -

Him on high: There mor - tal gaze hath strength to see The grow - eth old, Sub - lime, most high, that can - not fade, That King is here Pro - mised to A - bra - ham of yore, And forth of old; The Fa - ther's wit - ness hath or - dained That vealed to - day, With Fa - ther and Blest Spi - rit One Un - to - ken of His maj - es - ty.

was ere earth and Heav'n were made.
to his seed for ev - er more.
we should hear with faith un - feigned.
til the a - ges' course is done.