

Hymn to Christ the King
Palm Sunday Procession

by Theodulph of Orléans
(text composed in 810; died in 821)

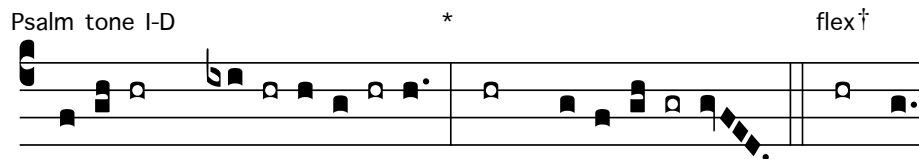

I

G lory and ho-nor and praise be to you, Christ, King and Redeemer, to whom young children cried out loving Hosannas with joy.

Schola chants refrain once, followed by all. Schola chants verses, with all singing refrain.

Psalm tone I-D * flex †

- (1) Is-ra-ël's King are you, †
King David's *magnificent offspring; **
you are the ruler who come blest in the name of the Lord. R
- (2) *Hea-ven-ly hosts on high unite in singing your praises; **
men and women on earth | and all cre-a-tion join in. R
- (3) Bear-ing branches of palm, †
Hebrews came *crowding to greet you; **
see how with prayers and hymns | we come to pay you our vows. R
- (4) They of-fered gifts of praise to you, †
so near to your *Passion; **
see how we sing this song now to you | reigning on high. R
- (5) Those you were pleased to accept, †
now accept our gifts of devotion, *
good and merciful King, | lover of all that is good. R
