

Hymn to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

composed for St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, Lexington Kentucky

Patrick Valentino

text adapted from St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's writings and prayers May be sung in unison, parts, or as a canon

1. Con - so - ling Peace, at - tend my way Through storms and dan - gers of this life; That
 2. When sor - row, pain, or dread draw nigh, Pray, act we well in time and place; And
 3. O bles - sed Mo - ther Se - ton, pray That God may hear our meek re - quest; And, we who have Christ as our Rock Bend not to ter - ror 'mid the strife.

5
 leave the rest to God most high Who na - ture's faults a - mend by grace.
 trust - ing Him, as in your way, We all may be for - e - ver blest.