

Via Crucis

The Stations of the Cross

Entrance Hymn

Vexilla regis

The royal ban-ners * forward go; The Cross shines forth in mystic glow, Where He by whom our flesh was made, In that same flesh our ransom paid.

Where deep for us the spear
was dyed,
Life's torrent rushing from His side,
To cleanse us in the precious flood
Where mingled, water flowed, and blood.

3.

Fulfilled is all that David told
In true prophetic song of old:
Amidst the nations, God, said
he,
Shall reign in triumph from a tree.

FIRST STATION

Jesus is condemned to death

℣: W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

℟: Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

In the morning, the chief priests, elders, scribes, and the whole council, binding Jesus, led him away and took him to Pilate. And they all condemned him, saying: He is guilty of death; we have found this man saying that he is Christ the King. And Pilate, sitting in the place of judgment, handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

℣: God spared not his only Son.

℟: But delivered him up for all of us.

Let us pray:

O Lord Jesus Christ, you came down upon earth from the glory of the Father in heaven, and you shed your precious blood for the remission of our sins. We humbly pray that, on the day of judgment you may find us worthy to be placed at your right hand, and to hear your words: Come, you blessed of my Father! This we ask of you now living and reigning forever. Amen.

Pange lingua

III Thirty years a-mong us dwelling, His appointed time fulfilled,

Born for this, he meets his passion, This the Saviour freely willed:

On the Cross the Lamb is lifted, Where his precious blood is spilled.

SECOND STATION

Jesus takes up his Cross

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world. R:

Carrying his Cross, Jesus went forth to the place called Calvary. Hail, O Christ our King! You alone had pity on the folly of our sins. Obedient to the will of the Father, you are led forth to be crucified, like an innocent lamb to the slaughter. To you be glory; to you be triumph and victory over sin and death; to you the crown of highest honor and acclaim.

Y: The Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

R: For the wickedness of his people he has stricken him.

Let us pray:

Lord, you once said: Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly of heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. Grant that we may be able so to carry it as to obtain your saving grace. This we ask of you now living and reigning forever. Amen.

Faithful Cross! a-bove all other, One and only noble tree!

None in foliage, none in blossom, None in fruit thy peers may be;

Sweetest wood and sweetest I-ron! Sweetest weight is hung on thee.

THIRD STATION

Jesus falls the first time

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.
Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Our Lord Jesus Christ humbled himself to the point of death, even to death on the Cross. That is why God exalted him above every creature, and gave him a name that is above all other names. Come, let us adore and bow down in worship before God; let us weep in the presence of the Lord who made us, for he is indeed the Lord our God.

℣: Surely he has borne our infirmities.
℟: And he has carried our sorrows.

Let us pray:

Almighty God and Father, we confess that we are weak and that we often fail in the midst of trials and sufferings. Through the merits of the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ, your only begotten Son, give us new courage and hope. This we ask in Jesus' name, who lives and reigns for ever. Amen.

Bend thy boughs, O tree of glory! Thy too rigid sinews bend;
For awhile the ancient rigor That thy birth bestowed, suspend;
And the King of heavenly beauty On thy bosom gently tend!

FOURTH STATION

Jesus meets his afflicted mother

We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.
Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

To what shall I compare you? Or to what shall I liken you, virgin daughter of Jerusalem? For great as the sea is your distress. O Mother of mercy, grant that we may always realize in ourselves the death of Jesus and share with him in his saving Passion.

℣: A sword of sorrow has pierced your soul.

℟: And has filled your heart with bitter pain.

Let us pray:

Lord Jesus Christ, at the hour of your cruel death on the Cross, a sword of sorrow pierced the grieving soul of the Virgin Mary, your Mother. May she plead for clemency in our behalf, now and at the hour of our death. This we ask of you now living and reigning for ever. Amen.

Stabat mater

^{vi}
At the Cross, her station keeping, Stood the mournful Mother weeping, Close to Jesus to the last. Through her heart, His sorrow sharing,
All His bitter anguish bearing, Now at length the sword has passed.

FIFTH STATION

Simon of Cyrene is forced to take up the Cross

♯: W  e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

 Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world. **℞:

As the soldiers were leading Jesus away on the road to Calvary, they laid hold of a certain Simon, of Cyrene, a passerby, who was coming in from the country, and forced him to take up the Cross of Jesus. If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

♯: Whoever does not carry his cross and come after me

℞: Cannot be my disciple.

Let us pray:

O God of grace and might, accept our prayers and sacrifices, and be moved to have mercy on us. Strengthen us in our weakness so that our rebellious wills may yield to your divine will in all things. This we ask of you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. O how sad and sore distress'd was that Mother, highly blest,
of the sole-begotten One.
Christ above in torment hangs,
she beneath beholds the pangs
of her dying glorious Son.

SIXTH STATION

Veronica wipes the face of Jesus

℣: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you. Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Lo, we have seen him, and there is no beauty in him, nor comeliness. He is despised and rejected, a man of sorrows, his face full of grief. He is worn out by suffering, like one in whose presence the people hide their faces. He is scorned and disdained. His appearance is that of one tortured beyond human endurance. And yet he is fairer than all the sons of man, and by his wounds we are healed.

℣: Turn not your face from us,
℟: And withdraw not from your servants in your anger.

Let us pray:

O God, renew us according to your own image and likeness by the precious blood of Jesus Christ your Son. Guide our footsteps in your paths, that we may truly experience the gift of your divine charity. This we ask through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

SEVENTH STATION

Jesus falls a second time

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

They delivered me into the hands of the impious, they cast me out among the wicked, and they spared not my life. The powerful gathered together against me, and like giants they stood against me. Afflicting me with cruel wounds, they mocked me.

℣: But I am a worm and no man.

℟: The reproach of men and the outcast of the people.

Let us pray:

O God, by the humiliation of your Son, you lifted up our fallen world. Deliver us from the perils of eternal death, and guide us to eternal happiness in heaven. This we ask of you, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI

♦ 4. Bruised, de-rided, cursed, de- filed, she beheld her tender

Child All with bloody scourges rent: For the sins of His own nation, saw Him hang in de-so-lation, Till His spir-it forth He sent.

EIGHTH STATION

Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Following Jesus on the road to Calvary was a multitude of people and of women who bewailed and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said: Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but for yourselves and for your children. Remember that the days are coming when they will say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' If they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when the wood is dry?

Ÿ: They who sow in tears

℞: Shall reap in joy.

Let us pray:

O God, you chose rather to have mercy than to be angry with those who put their hope in you. Grant us your grace that we may truly grieve and make amends for the evil we have done, and thus obtain the gift of your heavenly consolation.

This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI

♦ 5. O thou Mother! fount of love! Touch my spir-it from above, make my heart with thine accord: Make me feel as thou hast felt;

make my soul to glow and melt with the love of Christ my Lord.

NINTH STATION

Jesus falls for the third time

♯: W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

My people, what have I done to you, or in what have I grieved you?
Answer me. I brought you out of Egypt, and you have led me to the gibbet of the Cross. Forty years I fed you with manna in the desert, and you have beaten me with blows and scourges. What more should I have done for you that I have not done?

♯: He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.

℞: He was mute as a lamb before the shearer.

Guard us, O God on High, by our ever present mercy and goodness.

Without your help, we cannot overcome the evil that beckons us, because of our weak human nature. Without you we shall surely fall.
Help us to avoid all that is sinful, and guide our steps in the way of all that is profitable for our salvation. This we ask of you through Christ
our Lord. Amen.

vi

◆ 6. Ho-ly Mother! pierce me through, in my heart each wound renew of my Savior cru-ci-fied: Let me share with thee His pain, who for all my sins was slain, who for me in torments died.

TENTH STATION

Jesus is stripped of his clothes

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.
Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

They came to the place that is called Golgotha, or Calvary, the Place of the Skull. There they gave him wine to drink, mingled with gall. He tasted it, but would not drink. They divided his garments among them by drawing lots, and thus was fulfilled what the prophet had said: they divided my garments among them, and for my vesture they cast lots.

Ÿ: They gave me gall for me food.

R: And in my thirst they gave me vinager to drink.

Strip us, Lord Jesus, of our former self, with its evil deeds and ways. And clothe us with that newness of nature which you have created in justice, holiness, and truth. This we ask of you now living and reigning for ever. Amen.

VI
♦ 7. Let me mingle tears with thee, mourning Him who mourned for me, all the days that I may live: By the Cross with thee to stay, there with thee to weep and pray, is all I ask of thee to give.

ELEVENTH STATION

Jesus is nailed to the Cross

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Having arrived at the place called Calvary, they crucified him there, and with him two thieves, one on the right, the other on the left, and Jesus in the midst. My people, what have I done to you? I exalted you with great power, and you have hanged me on the gibbet of the Cross.

Ÿ: They have pierced my hands and feet.

R: They have numbered all my bones.

O God, by the sacred passion of your only begotten Son, and by the five wounds from which his blood was poured, you repaired the evil wrought by sin in our human nature. As we on earth revere the wounds which he recieved, we pray that in heaven we may experience the fruit of his most precious blood.

This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

vi 8. Virgin of all virgins blest! Listen to my fond request: let me share thy grief di-vine; Let me, to my lat-est breath, in my body bear the death of that dy-ing Son of thine.

TWELFTH STATION

Jesus dies on the Cross

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

When Jesus saw his Mother at the foot of the Cross and, standing near her, the disciple whom he loved, he said unto his mother: Woman, behold your son. After that he said to the disciple: Behold your mother. Having tasted the vinegar, Jesus said: It is finished. Then, crying in a loud voice, he said: Father, into your hands I commend my spirit. And, bowing his head, he gave up the spirit.

ψ: Christ for our sake became obedient unto death.

℞: Even to death on the Cross.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, at the sixth hour you mounted the gibbet of the Cross for the redemption of the world, and shed your precious blood for the remission of our sins. We humbly beg that, after our death, we may enter with joy the gates of paradise, This we ask of you now living and reigning for ever. Amen.

VI

♦ 9. Wounded with His every wound, steep my soul till it hath swooned, in His ver-y Blood away; Be to me, O Virgin, nigh, lest in flames I burn and die, in His awful Judgment Day.

THIRTEENTH STATION

Jesus is taken down from the cross

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.
Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

All you who pass by the way, look, and see if there be any sorrow like my sorrow. My eyes are spent with weeping, my whole being is troubled, and my strength is poured out upon the earth, as I behold the cruel death of my Son, for the enemy has prevailed against him. Call me not Naomi (that is, beautiful), but call me Mara (that is, bitter), for the Almighty has afflicted me and has dealt quite bitterly with me.

Ÿ: Tears are on her cheeks.

℞: And there is none to comfort her.

At your passion, Lord Jesus, as Simeon had foretold, a sword of sorrow pierced the sweet soul of Mary, your glorious Virgin Mother. As we now reverently recall her bitter anguish and suffering, grant that we may obtain the blessed fruits of your redemption. This we ask of you now living and reigning for ever. Amen.

VI
♦ 10. Christ, when Thou shalt call me hence, by Thy Mother my de-fense, by Thy Cross my vic-to-ry; While my body here de-cays, may my soul Thy goodness praise, safe in pa-radise with Thee.

FORTEENTH STATION

Jesus is placed in the tomb

W e adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.

ψ: Because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Joseph of Arimethea, who was also a disciple of Jesus, went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus, and Pilate ordered it to be given to him.

Having taken the body down from the Cross, Joseph wrapped it in a cleqn linen shroud, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in a rock. And he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb.

ψ: You will not leave my soul in the netherworld.

℞: Nor will you let your holy one see corruption.

Lord Jesus Christ, you left us a record of your passion in the holy shroud wherein Joseph wrapped your sacred body when it was taken down from the cross. In your mercy, grant that through you death and burial we may experience the glory of your resurrection. This we ask of you now living and reigning for ever. Amen.

VI

◆ O cross, our one re-li- ance, hail! Still may thy power with us a-vail To save us sinners from our sin, God's righteousness for all to win. A-men.

Concluding Prayer

O God, you willed that your only begotten Son should suffer and die on the Cross for us, in order to rescue us from the power of the enemy. As we now glory in honoring that same holy Cross, grant that we may everywhere rejoice in your loving care and obtain the grace of rising with him. This we ask of you through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Service for Benediction may be found at no. 85 in the hymnal. During Lent Compline concludes with the following hymn:

Ave Regina Caelorum

tr. St Anne's Plainsong Psalter

vi

Queen of the heavens, we hail thee, hail thee, Lady of all the Angels; Thou the dawn, the door of morning, whence the world's true light is ris-en: Joy to thee, O Virgin glorious, Beautiful beyond all other; Hail, and farewell, O most gracious, Intercede for us alway to Je-sus.

The three Gregorian hymns sung with the Stations are:

Vexilla regis (tr. after Caswall)

Pange lingua gloriosi (tr. John Mason Neale)

Stabat mater (tr. Caswall)
