Sunday Week I

Evening Prayer II

Hymn Lucis creator optime L.M.

O blest Creator of the light	But grant them grace that they may strain
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright,	The heav'nly gate and prize to gain:
And o'er the forming world didst call	Each harmful lure aside to cast,
The light from chaos first of all;	And purge away each error past.

Whose wisdom joined in meet array	O Father, that we ask be done,
The morn and eve, and named them day:	Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Night comes with all its darkling fears;	Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Regard thy people's prayers and tears,	Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Lest, sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife,
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

INTECESSIONS

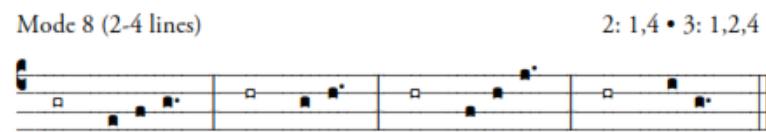

Christ the Lord is our head; we are his members. In joy let us call out to him:
Lord may your kingdom come.
Christ our Savior, make your church a more vivid symbol of the unity of all mankind,
—make it more effectively the sacrament of salvation for all peoples.
Through your presence, guide the college of bishops in union with the Pope,
—give them the gifts of unity, love and peace.
Bind all Christians more closely to yourself, their divine Head,
—lead them to proclaim your kingdom by the witness of their lives.
Grant peace to the world,
—let every land flourish in justice and security.
Grant to the dead the glory of resurrection,
—and give us a share in their happiness.

Our Father...

Corinthians 1:3-4

Praised be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation! He comforts us in all our afflictions and thus enables us to comfort those who are in trouble, with the same consolations we have received from him.
