Verse
Ps 8

1. O LORD, our LORD,
     how majestic †
 is your name through all the earth! *      Your majesty is set above      the heavens.
 From the mouths
     of children and of babes † you fashioned praise to foil your enemy, *      to silence the foe and      the rebel.

2. When I see the heavens, the work of your fingers, *      the moon and the stars which you ar - ranged.
 what is man that you should keep him in mind, *      the son of man that you care      for him?

3. Yet you have made him little lower than the angels; *      with glory and honor      you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hands; *      you put all things under      his feet.

Glory be to the Father ...
