

Psalm 4

in pre-Reformation old English

arr. Parker/Shaw/Reynolds

unis. all:

Bar. mp
 God of my jus-tice, when I call, me an-swer in dis-tress. Thou

Bar. mf
 mad'st me roomth shew grace to me, and hear Thou my re-quest. "Mens

Bar. mp
 sonnes, how long shall my glo-rie to ig-no-mi-nie bee; Will ye love va-ni-

T. mf
 Thou giv-est joy un-to my

Bar. mf
 ty, Se-lah, will ye seek fal-si-tie?" Thou giv-est joy un-to my

B. p
 will ye seek fal-si-tie?"

T. mf
 heart more than the time where-in Their corn and al-so Thou giv-est joy,

Bar. f
 heart more than the time where-in Their corn and al-so their new wine have mul-ti-plied

B. p
 Thou giv-est joy,

T. mf In peace to - gi - ther lay me down, mp For

Bar. mf been. mp In peace to - gi - ther lay me down, and mp al - so sleep will I: For

B. mp And al - so sleep will I: For

T. p pp thou, Lord, will a - lone me seat in safe - - tie. God of my

Bar. p pp thou, Lord, will a - lone me seat in con - fi - dent safe - tie. God of my

B. p thou, Lord, will a - lone me seat in con - fi - dent safe - tie.

T. jus - tice when I call, me an - swer in dis - tress.

Bar. jus - tice when I call, me an - swer in dis - tress.

B.