Brothers: we will not have you ignorant concerning those that are asleep, that you are not sorrowful, even as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again; even so them who have slept through Jesus, will God bring with him. For this we say unto you in the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them who have slept. For the Lord himself shall come down from heaven with commandment, and with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead who are in Christ, shall rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, shall be taken up together with them in the clouds to meet Christ, into the air, and so shall we be always with the Lord. Wherefore, comfort you one another with these words.

The Absolution. - The continuation of the Burial Service

After Mass, the Priest, vested in a black cope, goes to the bier for the ceremony called the Absolution. The Cross-bearer stands at the head of the deceased between two Acolytes with lighted candles. The Priest stands at the foot of the bier opposite the Cross and recites the following Prayer, which is never altered even if said for a woman or several deceased.

Non íntres in júdícium cum sérvó túo Dómine, quía núllus ápuđ te jústificábitur hómo, nísi per te ómniúm peccatórum éi tribuátur remíssio. But then condemn not, we beg that sentence You pronounce in judgement upon one whom the faithful prayer of Christian people commends to You, to be a doom which shall crush him completely. Rather assist him by Your gracious favor, that he may escape Your avenging justice who, in his lifetime, was signed with the seal of the holy Trinity. Who lives and reigns world without end.
