Twenty-seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time (Roman Rite)

Offertory

Vir erat (Mode 2, transposed)

Job 1 & 2

The musical score is written on seven staves of a single melodic line in treble clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is a simple, stepwise line with some eighth-note runs. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes. The text is: "There was a man in the land whose name was Job: blameless and upright, and one who feared God; and Satan asked to test him; and the Lord gave him power over his possessions and over his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his sons, and afflicted him with loathsome sores".

There was a man in the land whose name was Job: blameless and upright, and one who feared God; and Sa- tan asked to test him; and the Lord gave him pow- er o- ver his pos- ses- sions and o- ver his flesh; and he de- stroyed all his sub- stance and his sons, and af- flict- ed him with loath- some sores
