1. O Christ, Thy love to all the world Is Thine e - ter - nal cross;
2. O Christ, Thy love to all the world Is Thine e - ter - nal throne;
3. O Love, that died for all the world, Teach us Thy sym - pa - thies,

From ev - er - last - ing Thou hast borne The sor - row of our loss;
From ev - er - last - ing on Thy head The Fa - ther set the crown;
That we, in love for all, may learn The joy of sac - ri - fice.

And on the Tree Thy sac - ri - fice Hath shown Thy love the life
And from the Tree Thy love re - vealed, Hath con - quered us to Thee,
O Love, that reigns for all the world, Ful - fill Thy vic - to - ry,

That, bear - ing sin un - to the death, Hath tri - umphed in the strife.
And made o - be - dience and Thy will One per - fect lib - er - ty.
Till all are sub - ject to Thy sway, And blessed, O Christ, in Thee.
