

Music Director Position

Nativity Parish is currently accepting applications for the position of Director of Sacred Music. Nativity is a large and thriving parish in Broomfield, CO, a city in the northern part of Denver Metro area. A large, vibrant, and growing music ministry, with several volunteer choirs and professional organists and pianists, serves the parish accompanying weekend Masses.

Duties and responsibilities of this position include:

- Coordinate all aspects of the music ministry for the parish.
- Lead and direct choirs during Mass and rehearsals, forming volunteer choir members to sing as an act of prayer and as a service to the liturgy.
- Provide one to one vocal training to volunteer choir members who require additional help.
- Play organ and piano.
- Form cantors to assist and encourage congregational singing during Mass.
- Form the congregation in communal singing as a way of praying and participating in the liturgy.
- Play and direct music for funerals and weddings.

Qualifications include:

- Practicing Catholic in good standing and motivated to work for the Glory of Christ.
- 3-5 years experience as a Music Director.
- Proficient in Gregorian Chant, preferably with some experience in directing a schola.
- Strong leadership skills and takes direction well from clergy team.
- Master's degree in music or related field preferred, Bachelor's in Music or related field minimum.
- Proficiency in organ and piano along with excellent choir conducting skills.
- Familiar with the Catholic Liturgy and the relevant Church documents on sacred music.
- Detail oriented and organized.
- Excellent interpersonal skills.

Qualified candidates should submit their resume to:

Fr Emanuele Fadini, FSCB, Assistant Pastor
Nativity of Our Lord Catholic Parish
900 W Midway Blvd, Broomfield CO 80020
e.fadini@nool.us

Applications will be received until Sunday January 8th 2023.