

KEYBOARD ACCOMPANIST POSITIONS

St. Matthew Catholic Church in Hillsboro is seeking two keyboard accompanists to play for their Sunday 10am and 11.30 Masses respectively. Must be able to read music as written and prepare sufficiently, and can sight read at an intermediate level or higher. Must have prior experience accompanying for cantor and/or choir. Organ skills desirable, but not required.

Must have basic understanding of Catholic Liturgy and Music, and/or be willing and able to be trained on the job.

Responsibilities:

10am Mass: Two-hour Tuesday night rehearsal with the Choir and a one hour rehearsal before Mass. Must be available during Holy Week and Christmas to play for other services. Occasionally may be called upon to substitute for some of the other Masses, depending on your availability.

11.30am Mass: Two-hour Thursday night rehearsal with the Choir and a one hour rehearsal before Mass. Must be available during Holy Week and Christmas to play for other services. Occasionally may be called upon to substitute for some of the other Masses, depending on your availability.

Here at St. Matthew, we are looking to develop our Music Ministry to grow in all areas musically, artistically, liturgically, and pastorally in a professional and supportive environment.

Please send resume and contact smichael@stmatthewhillsboro.org for more information.