

Teaching Gregorian Chant to Children

July 5-8, 2017

St. Joseph's Seminary

Yonkers Campus

www.dunwoodie.edu

Instructor: Dr. Jennifer Donelson, Director of Sacred Music

This four-day intensive course will present pedagogical techniques for teaching Gregorian chant to children and is ideal for Catholic schoolteachers, directors and teachers of religious education, directors of children's choirs, and parents. Special emphasis will be placed on the Ward Method, a comprehensive music education method designed to teach sacred music to children. Other topics addressed will include resources for teachers, other teaching approaches, and the logistics of developing a sacred music program for children. The course meets from 8:00 to 6:00 Wednesday through Saturday.

Students are able to take the course for masters-level credit or as an auditor.

First-time students of St. Joseph's Seminary receive a 50% discount off tuition or the audit price.

$250 for 1st-time SJS student – Audit – $500 regular rate

$750 for 1st-time SJS student – 3 credits – $1500 regular tuition rate

Room and board at St. Joseph's Seminary are available for an additional fee.
