CHORAL PRELUDE from Requiem

Gabriel Fauré

Rebecca Krynski, Assistant Conductor

Michael LaRoache, Baritone

Domine, Jesu Christe, Rex gloriæ, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de pœnis inferni et de profundo lacu. Libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbeat eas tartarus, ne cadant in obscurum. Domine, Jesu Christe, Rex gloriæ, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de pœnis inferni et de profundo lacu. Hostias et preces tibi, Domine laudis offerimus; tu suscipe pro animabus illis, quarum hodie memoriam facimus. Fac eas, Domine, de morte transire ad vitam. Quam olim Abraham promisisti et semini ejus.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, free the souls of all the faithful departed from infernal punishment and the deep abyss. Free them from the mouth of the lion; do not let the gates of Hell swallow them, nor let them fall into darkness. O Lord, we offer you sacrifices and prayers in praise; accept them on behalf of the souls whom we remember today. Make them pass over from death to life, as you promised to Abraham and his descendants.

REQUIEM AND KYRIE from Requiem

Gabriel Fauré

Requiem aeternum dona eis Domine: et lux perpetua luceat eis. Te decet hymnus, Deus in Sion: et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem. Exaudi orationem meam, ad te omnis caro veniet.

Κυrie ελεησον; Χριστε ελεησον; Κυrie ελεησον.

Grant them rest eternal, Lord our God, we pray to Thee: and light perpetual shine on them for ever. Thou Lord, art worshipped in Sion; Thy praises shall ever be sung in all Jerusalem. O hear us: O Lord, hear thy faithful servants' prayer; to Thee shall all mortal flesh return.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

liturgy of the word

FIRST READING

Wisdom 3:1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the LORD shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 23

Setting by Joseph Gelineau

My shep-herd is the Lord, noth-ing in-deed shall I want.

SECOND READING

Romans 5:5-11

Brothers and Sisters: Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

GOSPEL

John 6:37-40

Jesus said to the crowds: “Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.”
