

SAVE THE DATE:
2018 SUMMER CHANT
COURSES

JUNE 18-22, 2018
DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY | PITTSBURGH, PA

CHANT INTENSIVE – DAVID HUGHES
BEGINNING WARD METHOD – SCOTT TURKINGTON
ADVANCED WARD METHOD – WILKO BROUWERS
LAUS IN ECCLESIA – BR. MARK BACHMANN

The Summer courses will again include the CMAA Beginning Ward Method course with Scott Turkington, as well as the Advanced Ward Method course with Wilko Brouwers to continue your training for use with children or for application with your adult choirs.

David Hughes will teach the Chant Intensive course in an intense week of chant training including the basics of square note notation, modes, neumes, rhythm, basic chironomy and other topics. This course is intended for those with some chant experience who wish to expand their skills. The week will culminate in a sung Mass.

Br. Mark Bachmann, choirmaster at Clear Creek Abbey, will be offering a first-level course in Chant according to the Solesmes method for the second time. This week will be the start of a course involving correspondence study with him and will be following the Solesmes tradition of teaching, including the use of a new publication by Clear Creek Abbey – Laus in Ecclesia.

Make plans to join these fine instructors next summer in expanding your chant skills.
