

VERITAS VERITATEM

Florence Plut.29.I fol. 423v

attr. Philip the Chancellor (d. 1236)

4B

e-ri-tas ve-ri-ta- tum vi- a, vi-ta, ve- ri- tas Truth of truths Way, Life, Truth, per ve-ri-ta- tis se- mi-tas e-eliminans pec-ca-tum. te ver-

by paths of truth doing away with sin; Thou, incarnate Word, bum incar-na- tum clamant fides, spes, ca-ri-tas, tu prime pa- cis crying out Faith, Hope, Charity Thou, first refuge sta- tum re-formans post re-a- tum. Tu post carnis after turning from guilt Thou, after delights of flesh

de-li-ci- as das gra-ti- as ut fa-ci- as be-a- tum.
dost grant grace to become holy.

○ quam mi-ra po-ten-ci- a quam re-gi- a vox prin-
○ what wondrous might, what regal voice of the prince

ci- pis cum egro- tan- ti pre- ci- pis surge, tolle commanding the invalid: Rise, and take up your pallet!

graba- tum.