

No. 16. Recitation.

No. 17. Song.

Christmas Bells.

LESTER PRICE.

1. Christ-mas bells..... are ring - ing O'er the earth tri -
 2. An - gel hymns.... are peal - ing Thro' the depth of
 3. Grate-ful chil - dren, come we now, Come, both heart and umphant - ly, Children's voi - ces sing - ing, Sound a yon - der sky; Ran - som'd saints - are kneel - ing, Kneeling hand to lift; Lord of Life, to Thee we bow, And....

ALL VOICES. Not too fast.

joy - ous ju - bi lee. } Christ - mas bells are ring - ing, at the throne on high } thank Thee for Thy gift.

Ring - ing, ring - ing O'er the earth tri - umphant - ly:

Children's voi - ces sing - ing, sing - ing, Sound a joy - ous ju - bi - lee.

For: Chorus: Motions of hands imitating ringing of bells.

No. 11. Song.

The Song That Will Never Cease.

JAMES ROWE.

Solo. (Rather slowly.)

HOWARD E. SMITH.

Three stanzas

1. The tid-ings came at mid-night, When earth and sky were still, And ten-der
 2. With joy their bless-ed mes-sage The ho-ly her-alds sang, Till stars re-
 3. A-gain the ho-ly an-gels The same glad tid-ings sing; A gain the waves of star-ry light Bathed ev-'ry plain and hill.

CHORUS Unison or Duet.

 peat-ed ev-'ry strain And earth and heav-en rang. } "Glo-ry to God in the stars re-peat the song And earth and heav-en ring.

high-est; On earth good-will and peace!" This is the song the an-gels sang—The song that will never cease. "Glo-ry to God in the high-est; On earth good will and peace!" This is the song the an-gels sang—The song that will nev-er cease.

No. 14. Recitation.

No. 15. Song.

Tidings of His Birth.

S. K. BEST.

THORO HARRIS.

DUET. For a Class of Girls.

1. On that Christmas night shone a star so bright, That the wise men knew of its
2. Still the news is told sweet-ly as of old, For the child they found in a
3. Tell the tid-ings sweet, to the world re-peat That a Sav-ior came to re-mean- ing, For the wondrous light of the ho-ly night Was a man-ger, Is our King of kings who sal-va-tion brings, And the deem us, We are glad He came, praise His ho-ly name: And for-

CHORUS.

mar-vel to their sight. } O-ver hill and plain rang a earth with glad-ness rings.
ev-er peace shall reign.

sweet re-frain Wel-come tid-ings to the earth; (the earth:) With a joy-ful song came the an-gel throng, Tell-ing of a Sav-ior's birth.

Christmas Bells, Ring On.

2

JAMES ROWE.

Full Chorus of all Voices.

HOWARD E. SMITH.

1. Hear the bells, far and near! Send - ing out the tid - ings
 2. Hear the bells! How their strains Fill with hope the hope - less,
 3. Hear the bells, hear the bells! Tell - ing wea - ry souls of

St Marys

Christmas Bells, Ring On. Concluded.

to the wait - ing earth! Hear the bells.... loud and.... clear com - fort those who mourn! Hear the bells!.... Glad - ness.... reigns, rest and love and peace! Ev - 'ry strain.... plain - ly.... tells

REFRAIN.

Tell - ing of the Sav - ior's birth!.....
 For the King of Kings is born..... } Christ - mas bells.... ring
 That the reign of sin shall cease..... } on, peal on,..... Cease..... ye not..... to peal and ring..... Till.... all na - tions shall, as one..... Wor - ship Christ.... the new - born.... King