

ASTRA QUAE TERRAM

2. Dum tibi donis cumulata centum
Ara votiva recalet favilla,
Virgines circum, puerique laeto
Carmine plaudunt.

3. Te nec instantis rabies tyranni
Mente dejicit solida, immerenti
Sive, ni Christo renuas, minetur
Vincula collo.

4. Sive plumbatis laceranda loris
Terga nudarit, mediove casta
Missili metam dederit sagittae
Pectora circo.

5. Perstat insano velut icta ponto
Fluctuum cautes rabiem refringens
Vis tibi haud impar Philumena, mensque
Nescia flecti.

6. Unicum caelo profitens tonantem
Barbare collum subjicis bipenni;
Ima despectans, comitante scandis
Sidera sposo.

7. Hic Patri trinam, genitoque et almo
Flamini laudem recinens bearis;
Subditas has, tu, placido tuere
Lumine terras.
