

O Gracious Dwelling

Adam Wood

GOLDEN WOOD (LMD)

William Copper

O gra - cious dwel - ling of our King, rise You are the tem - ple, you the star, the Your off - spring shall our Shep - herd be, and 4

up and let the Ma - gi in, Who come to ta - ber - na - cle full of grace, A host for you our Moth - er, e - ver more. You are our 9

ho - nor, laud and sing the Child who saves us from our pil - grims near and far, on earth the pure - est Ho - ly grace, our life; and He our sure sal - va - tion, source, and 14

sin. They of - fer gold and rich per - fume, and place. From you O Queen, O seat, O bride, and store. Then let all come and bend the knee and all the gifts they have to bring. To praise the great - est King is born to earth. To Him and still the voice and hear His call: re - veal the 24

19

One who from your womb came forth to be our Lord and King.
you the wise shall ride, to sing in praise the Ho - ly birth.
heart in prayer and see! as He re - vealed our God to all.