

All Ye Who Would the Christ *Descry (*Behold)

Roman Breviary for the Feast of the Transfiguration

Quicumque Christum Quaeritis

Jacob Flaherty

1. All ye who_ would the Christ de - scry, Lift up your eyes to
2. A won - drous sign we there be - hold, That knows not death nor
3. Here is the_ King the Gen - tiles fear, The Jews' most migh - ty
4. 'Tis He the_ Proph - ets' words fore - told, And by their signs shown
5. Je - sus, to_ Thee our praise we pay, To lit - tle ones re -

Him on high: There mor - tal_ gaze hath strength to_ see The grow - eth old, Sub - lime, most_ high, that can - not_ fade, That King is here Pro - mised to_ A - bra - ham_ of_ yore, And forth of old; The Fa - ther's_ wit - ness hath_ or - dained That vealed to - day, With Fa - ther_ and Blest Spi - rit_ One Un - to - ken of His maj - es - ty.

was ere earth and Heav'n_ were made.
to his seed for - ev - er - more.
we should hear with faith_ un - feigned.
til the a - ges' course_ is done.