

O' Turn to Jesus, Mother, Turn

1. O turn to Je - sus, Mo - ther turn, and
 2. Oh they have fought a ga - llant fight, and
 3. They are the chil - dren of thy tears, then
 4. O Ma - ry let thy Son no more His
 5. Pray then as thou hast e - ver pray'd, an - call Him by His ten - d'rest names; Pray for the Ho - ly death's cold arms they per - se - ver'd; and af - ter life's un - ha - sten, Mo - ther, to their aid. In pi - ty think each lin - g'ring spou - ses thus ex - pect. God's chil - dren to their gels and souls all look to thee. God waits thy pray'rs for Souls that burn, this hour a - midst the clea - nsing flames.

 chee - ry night, the ar - bour of glo - ry thier rest is de - lay'd.
 hour a - ppears an age while glo - ry is de - lay'd.
 God re - store, and to the Spi - rit of His e - lect.
 He hath made those pray'rs His law of cha - ri - ty.

This Requiem hymn was written by Fr. Faber, who was known not only for his writings, but also from founding the Oratorians in London. The melody is from a Slavic tune.
