Evening Prayer II

Hymn L.M.

O blest Creator of the light,	O Father, that we ask be done,
Who mak’st the day with radiance bright,	Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
And o’er the forming world didst call	Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
The light from chaos first of all;	Doth live and reign eternally. Amen

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve, and named them Day:
Night comes with all it’s darkling fears;
Regard they people’s prayers and tears,

Lest, sunk in sin, and whom’d with strife,
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
The weave new chains of woe and crime

But grant them grace that they may strain
The heav’nly gate and prize to gain:
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past

INTECESSIONS

Christ the Lord is our head; we are his members. In joy let us call out to him:
Lord may your kingdom come
Christ our Savior, make your Church a more vivid symbol of the unity of all mankind,
—make it more effectively the sacrament of salvation for all peoples.
Through your presence, guide the college of bishops in union with the pope,
—give them the gifts of unity, love and peace.
Bind all Christians more closely to yourself, their divine Head,
—lead them to proclaim your kingdom by the witness of their lives.
Grant peace to the world,
—let every land flourish in justice and security.
Grant to the dead the glory of resurrection,
—and give us a share in their happiness.

Gave us new birth;

A birth unto hope which draws it's life

From the resurrection of Jesus Christ form the dead;

A birth to an imperishable inheritance,

Incapable of fading or defilement,

Which is kept in heaven for you

Who are guarded with God's power through faith;

A birth to a salvation which stands ready

To be revealed in the last days.
