

O Joseph Heavenly Hosts

O Jo - seph, heav - nly hosts thy wor - thy - ness pro - claim,
 Thou, when thou didst be - hold thy spouse a - bout to bear,
 Thou with thy new - born Lord di - dst seek far E - gypt's Land,
 And Chris - ten - dom con - spires to cel - e - brate thy fame,
 Were sore o - pressed with doubt, were filled with won - dring care;
 As wand - ring pi - grims, ye fled o'er the de - sert sand;
 Thou who in pur - est bonds were to the Vir - gin bound
 At lenght the An - gel's word thy an - xious heart re - lived;
 That Lord, when lost, by thee is in the tem - ple found,
 how glo - rious is thy name re - nowned.
 She by the Spi - rit hath con - cieved.
 While tears are shed and joys a - bound.
