

At our parish Requiems, we sing the music and chants which have buried Catholics for over a thousand years. These texts have seen the burials of countless saints, popes, and kings. Whether rich or poor, prince or pauper, these texts accompanied every requiem. We believe that your loved ones deserve these prayers, composed to ask for God's extraordinary mercy at this, the hour of death.

At communion time will ring the words:

That which thou thyself hast offered
To thy Father, offer we;
Let it win for them a blessing,
Bless them, Jesu, set them free:
They are thine, they wait in patience,
Merciful and gracious be.

Hear and answer prayers devoutest,
Break, O Lord, each binding chain,
Dash the gates of death asunder,
Quell the devil and his train;
Bring the souls which thou hast ransomed
Evermore in joy to reign.

It is my hope that these prayers will provide you comfort in a difficult time, and security in that the Church has provided all the right and necessary musical arrangements for you.
