

The image displays a musical score for a hymn, consisting of ten staves of music. Each staff is a five-line system with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written in a Gothic-style font below the staves. The music is written in a simple, blocky style, with notes and rests represented by small black squares. The lyrics are as follows:

Israel's King are you, King David's magni-ficent offspring; you are the ru-ler who come blest in the name of the Lord. Glory. Heavenly hosts on high unite in singing your praises; men and wo-men on earth and all cre-a-tion join in. Glory. Bearing branches of palm, Hebrews come crowding to greet you; see how with prayers and hymns we come to pay you our vows. Glory. They offered gifts of praise to you, so near to your Passion; see how we sing this song now to you reigning on high.
Glory. Those you were pleased to accept; now accept our gifts of devotion, good and mer-ciful King, lover of all that is good. Glory. .
