

HYMN : PANGE LINGUA GLORIOSI

Hymn for the Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas

Hymn.
I.

PAN-ge, lingua, glori-osi Dogma-tis myste-ri-um

Et Aq-ui-ni pre-ti-o-si, Quem in lucem genti-um Instar

so-lis radi-o-si Rex accendit genti-um. 2. Nostro datus nostro natus Thomas est in ordi-ne Et in scho-lis conserva-tus Sparso verbi semine, Su-i palmam docto-ra-tus Mi-ro tu-lit omi-ne. 3. Nam cum sacrae corpus cenae Descripsis-set fratri-bus Panis, vi-ni substans ple-ne So-lis acci-denti-bus: De me, Thoma, scriptum bene

Cruz affla-vit auri-bus. 4. Verbo vitæ Verbum verum Thomas semper ef-fi-cit, E-jus stylus dulce me-rum Nec a-fi-de de-ficit Ad do-cendum cor since-rum Solus Thomas suffi-cit. 5. Tantum ergo nos portentum Ve-nere-mur cernu-i Et Aq-ui-ni do-cumentum, Nostro dispar sensu-

i, Præstet nostræ supplementum Virtu-tis de-lectu-i

6. Geni-to-ri geni-toque Laus et ju-bila-ti-o, Pro-ce-den-ti ab utro-que Compar bene-dicti-o, Aquina-tis scrip-tis quoque Su-a sit lauda-ti- o. Amen.

Produced by the Society of St. Bede.

Music; retypeset from the Liber Usualis 1910, using Caeciliae typeface.

N.B. We do not know the original music used with this Hymn.

The Latin text and reference below is from the Analecta Hymnica Vol. 43;

“Il Rosario, Memorie Domenicane 1901. Nr. 1. Apr. e Codice bibl. commun.

Bordeaux Nr. 77? Brev. Dominic.”